Greetings in the Name of our precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Mission work. Regular services were resumed in all mission points. We are thankful that everyone's health has improved and that nobody else got sick. Miriam and I made a week long trip to Bucharest last month. We were able to visit the brethren in Filiasi and those in and around Bucharest. It was great to visit them again and spend time in fellowship, both in their homes and in the services.

Update on Mom: Thank you very much for your prayers for my mother. She had the bypass surgery and it was a success. She is recovering now and will have to go for a check up in a week or so. Then we'll know when we can bring her home from Italy. Our sister has been staying with her to help. Mom expressed her gratitude to all those that have been praying for her. Your prayers and messages were an encouragement to us!

Literature work. Aurel and Miriam had a very busy month in the print shop. Another big book had to be reprinted (The Attributes of God by Arthur Pink), as well as several other booklets. We shipped out 37 large packages with literature (those in the picture on the right represent one of the trips to the post office that Aurel made last month). A lot of this literature is being distributed on the streets, from door to door or is put in the mail boxes of apartment blocks (below are a couple of pictures sent to us by a young brother that recently started distributing our literature in the city of Craiova, in Southern Romania).

We continue our work online, as well, preparing content for our websites and mobile apps in several languages and in many formats (pdf, e-books, audiobooks, audio and video studies and sermons (that will have English and hopefully Spanish subtitles before long) and also doing weekly live series of Bible studies. Most of the church members are actively involved in this great work, which is a great blessing. We're thankful for each and every one of you that are part of this work, through your prayers and support! Bro. Raul
