Greetings in the Name of our precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Mission work. July was another full month for us. We had extremely hot weather for its greatest span (so hot that we're finally considering saving money to purchase an AC unit for the print shop, as well as for the house); we had church members and family members that suffered from various illnesses, and we also had printing equipment break down that delayed printing work and also put some dents into our budget, which was already stretched. But, in spite of all these hardships, the Lord blessed us abundantly.

The brethren from Bucharest had to cancel a service because of flu and covid, but they rejoiced receiving the visit of some brethren from Filiasi, that accompanied Aurel Munteanu one weekend.

I made a trip up north, to Baia Mare, and Aurel Miclea and I made a trip to Ukraine and visited brethren along the way there and back. We send separate reports for our work in Ukraine, so I am not taking more space here. If you do not receive our Ukraine reports, please let us know.

In Bocsa, we received the visit of brothers David and George Paraschivescu from Bucharest and spent a great week of fellowship. They helped us repair the printing equipment and together we visited the brethren in Timisoara, where, again, we had a wonderful time.

Please be in prayer for a conference we are planning to have in Bocsa in the last weekend of August. Lord willing, we will have a baptism service, too. Also, we plan to make another trip to Ukraine soon. Aurel Munteanu and I will be preaching to the refugees on one evening.

Literature work. We had two equipment failures which affected both the production of books, as well as booklets. We had to wait a couple of weeks for parts, but once we got them, we were able to replace the faulty ones and get the machines going again. We're wrapping up now the projects that were not finished and are getting ready to print new publications. We made progress with our translation work into Ukrainian and Russian, as well. One of our volunteers in Ukraine, young bro. Alex (sis. Alesia's son) helped us translate into Ukrainian my booklet, A Short Description of Historic Baptists. We will give him more literature to translate soon. Thank you all for standing with us and being part of the Lord's work here, in this part of the world! To God be the glory! Bro. Raul
